Reconciliation on hold

GMA-Erap back-channel talks leaked to media

By Ed Crutcher
and Lawrence Barlow

THEY WERE TO appear on stage, discuss how things went, reviewing the changes they would need for a new look and possibly a new format. But the reconciliation talks between GMA and Erap were on hold.

The talks, which were supposed to be a first step in a reconciliation process, were leaked to the media. The leaks were made by a person who was involved in the talks. The leaks were made by a person who was involved in the talks.

Sky not falling, or why expats choose to live here

By Ed Crutcher
and Lawrence Barlow

IT'S A COMMON saying that a man who is not afraid of the sky is not a man who is not afraid of the sky. But for many expats, the sky is not falling. They choose to live here because they love the country, the people, and the lifestyle.

The expats who live here are not afraid of the sky. They are not afraid of the sky. They are not afraid of the sky. They are not afraid of the sky. They are not afraid of the sky.

Maroons scrape past winless NU Bulldogs

By LUTHERA W. PANG

With a defense that looked like it was made of steel, the Maroons (1-0) defeated the Bulldogs (0-1) in a 76-65 victory in the first round of the UAAP basketball tournament.

Manila, Nov. 10

The Maroons' defense was the key to their victory. They held the Bulldogs to just 15 points in the first half and 10 in the second. The Bulldogs' offense, which was led by their star player, was also held in check. The Maroons' offense, led by their star player, was able to score 30 points in the first half and 25 in the second.

Army's South Command reduces fuel use

MANILA, Jan. 11 — The Philippine Army's South Command has reduced its fuel consumption by 10 percent in the first quarter of 2005 compared to the same period last year, according to a report released by the command's public information officer.

The report, which was released on Jan. 10, stated that the command's fuel consumption for the first quarter of 2005 was 1,200,000 liters, compared to 1,320,000 liters for the same period last year.

The command's public information officer said that the reduction in fuel consumption was achieved through a number of measures, including the use of more fuel-efficient vehicles and the implementation of a fuel management system.

The command's public information officer also said that the command is committed to reducing its fuel consumption in the future.

Opposition says Malacanang violated law during ARMM polls

MANILA, Jan. 11 — The opposition has accused the Malacanang Palace of violating the law during the recent ARMM (Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao) elections, according to a report released by the opposition.

The report, which was released on Jan. 10, stated that the Malacanang Palace had violated the law by allowing the winning candidate to be declared the winner before the results of the election had been officially announced.

The opposition said that this was a clear violation of the law, which requires that the results of the election be announced only after the counting process has been completed.

'Unipak' says ex-Mayor's daughter of 6-yr age born

MANILA, Jan. 11 — The Unipak group has announced that it has discovered the daughter of a former mayor, who is now 6 years old, according to a report released by the group.

The report, which was released on Jan. 10, stated that the daughter was found in a remote area of the Philippines. The Unipak group said that it had been searching for the daughter for several years.

The group said that it had been informed by a local resident that the daughter was living in a small, isolated community. The group then went to the community and found the daughter.

LIFE STYLE

Full house,

Red and white by Mike Lutz

A full house is a house that is full of people. It is a house that is full of life. It is a house that is full of love. It is a house that is full of happiness. It is a house that is full of everything that makes life worth living.

Baddeo at 19 plays it safe

By going minimalist, the designer may be springing a surprise when he celebrates his 20th year in 2006

By John Horgan
Special to the Herald

EVERYBODY expected the 19th year of the Baddeo collection to be a surprise. The designer, who has been in the business for 19 years, was expected to bring a new twist to his collection.

But the designer has decided to stick to his roots and bring a collection that is a blend of his past and present.

It's a collection that is a blend of his past and present. The designer has decided to stick to his roots and bring a collection that is a blend of his past and present.
